2023 Discovery Concerts

The Shreveport Symphony is very excited to present Musical Storytelling for its four Discovery Concerts on January 26 and 27, 2023. Maestro Michael Butterman will lead students in an exploration of how composers use music to tell stories, with and without words. The program will also include the premiere of Kermit Poling’s large orchestra musical suite to William Joyce’s “The Leaf Men and the Brave Good Bugs.” This concert provides ample educational experiences for grades 3-5.

The symphony will also include solo performances by double bassist Xavier Foley. Winner of a prestigious 2018 Avery Fisher Career Grant, he was recently recognized on New York WQXR’s “19 for 19” Artists to Watch list, and featured on PBS Thirteen’s NYC-ARTs.

All concerts will take place at RiverView Theater (600 Clyde Fant Parkway). This project is supported by a grant from the Community Foundation and funding from Caddo Parish Schools. Therefore, the Discovery concerts are free of charge to all public school students, and $5 per person for private and homeschool groups.

Space is limited – sign up early!
